

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
BAISE UNIVERSITY
THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA
AND
SAKON NAKHON RAJABHAT
UNIVERSITY
THE KINGDOM OF THAILAND

April 18, 2016

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
BAISE UNIVERSITY
THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA
AND
SAKON NAKHON RAJABHAT UNIVERSITY
THE KINGDOM OF THAILAND

In order to strengthen the relationship and co-operation of Baise University with Sakon Nakhon Rajabhat University, each institution has agreed to the following framework. This framework is based on principles of mutual equality and reciprocal benefits:

1. The two institutions will arrange for lecturers to visit each other's campus and conduct student activities. These lecturers will be encouraged to work as a visiting lecturer in a related field at the other party's campus.

2. The two institutions will arrange cultural research activities. Each institution will be responsible for the cost of activities conducted in their own country.

3. The two institutions will arrange student exchange activities consisting of short courses of 3 to 5 months' duration. Each university will be responsible for the expenses incurred in its own country for courses involving exchange students.

4. Administrators of each university will regularly make visits to each other's campus to foster sustainable co-operation.

5. The two institutions will arrange library activities. Baise University will provide a Thai library. At the same time, Sakon Nakhon Rajabhat University will provide a Chinese corner.

6. The two institutions will arrange network-making activities. Sakon Nakhon Rajabhat University will contact primary and secondary schools in Thailand that provide Chinese language training, with a view to providing internship opportunities for Baise University students.